

SECURELIFE HEALTH ASSURANCE
INDIVIDUAL HEALTH INSURANCE POLICY - SUMMARY OF BENEFITS

This document summarizes the terms of coverage under the SecureLife Basic Health Plan ("Policy") issued to the Policyholder named in the enrollment form.

1. WAITING PERIOD. Coverage for any pre-existing condition, as defined in Section 12, shall not commence until forty-eight (48) months after the Policy Effective Date. Claims submitted for pre-existing conditions prior to this period will be denied in full.
2. PREMIUM ADJUSTMENT. SecureLife reserves the right to increase the annual premium at any time and at its sole discretion, with such changes taking effect thirty (30) days after notice is posted to the Policyholder's online account. Continued payment of premium after such notice constitutes acceptance of the revised rate.
3. CO-PAYMENT AND DEDUCTIBLE. The Policyholder is responsible for a co-payment of twenty percent (20%) of all inpatient hospitalization charges, in addition to an annual deductible of INR 50,000, which must be satisfied before any benefit becomes payable, per Policy Year.
4. ROOM RENT CAPPING. Reimbursement for hospital room rent is capped at one percent (1%) of the Sum Insured per day. Should the Policyholder occupy a room exceeding this limit, all associated charges - including doctor's fees, nursing charges, and consumables - shall be proportionately reduced, not solely the room rent difference.
5. CLAIM DENIAL AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION. Any dispute regarding a denied or partially settled claim must be raised in writing within fifteen (15) days of the denial notice, and shall be resolved solely through binding arbitration conducted in the city where SecureLife's registered office is located. The Policyholder waives the right to pursue the claim through any civil court.
6. POLICY CANCELLATION. SecureLife may cancel this Policy at any time by providing fifteen (15) days' written notice, without obligation to refund any portion of the premium already paid for the current Policy Year.
7. RENEWAL. This Policy is renewable annually at SecureLife's sole discretion and is not guaranteed to be renewed regardless of the Policyholder's claims history.

This summary is provided for convenience; the full Policy wording governs in the event of any conflict.
